Hundreds Cheer College's Growth In Campus Rite

Bay de Noc Community College — five years old and respected everywhere — dedicated a new campus in the Escanaba Industrial Park Friday afternoon and more than 400 persons were out to cheer the proceedings.

It was a historic occasion, recognized so by all the persons in the chairs beneath the scrub oaks and on the flat bed trucks that seated the dignitaries.

Hopefully it was an augury of Delta County's future and of the great change that created the college and gives it its potential to change the big community which it serves.

Henry Harnischfeger, president of Harnischfeger Corp., which employs more persons in Escanaba than any other industry has ever employed — some 1,100 — was there. And so was Carl Anderson, president of the Delta County Trades & Labor Council, who works at the Harnischfeger plant. They turned a shovel of earth together in the ceremonial start on the new campus.

Unique Ceremony

No occasion of educational establishment growth in this area has ever brought together such a distinguished assemblage of educators, government leaders, industrialists and citizens as this dedication of a new campus and the start on construction of its first facilities.

Typical of the times in which the college was born, the site was a disputed choice. This is the college's first great victory.

College President Richard Rinehart keynoted the occasion when, with a rainstorm threatening the dedication ceremony, he said "This ceremony was planned to meet needs without delay. When something has to be done the community college should be able to move rapidly."

And the dedication ceremony, which had heard inspiring talks by Governor George Romney and President John X. Jamrich of Northern Michigan University and James Dotsch of Garden, a charter trustee of the college and now a member of the Michigan State Board for Public Community and Junior Colleges, when into action on a unique and impressive ceremony.

Tripod Flagpoles

Out came teams of groundbreakers at call of Dr. Rinehart, the city commission of Gladstone, and the city council of Escanaba and the board of trustees of the college and with gilded shovels they lifted the sod for a tripod installation of a steel flagpole setting. A spanking new made-in-Escanaba Harnischfeger truck crane lifted the heavy frame and set it down exactly in the sod holes and then stepped the three steel flagpoles as expertly. (There was the sound of industry honking and grinding at the Harnischfeger truck crane nearby throughout the proceedings.)

With the campus flagstaff set, Congressman Philip Ruppe (R-Houghton) presented an American flag from the national capitol and said: "The federal government is in a position to help finance education, but it is in no position to tell what education is needed or how the needs should be met. The need for education is great and it is going to be greater and the responsibility for meeting it is not in Washington, but in the community."

Michigan Flag

State Rep. Charles Varnum (R-Manistique) presented a Michigan State Flag and said "I pressed so hard (for legislative aid to the college) because you people had enough faith in it to pass millage for it when millages were going down (to defeat) all over the state. The aid was rejected twice and accepted at the end."

Mrs. Connie Druding of Ensign, the 13th person to enroll in Bay de Noc Community College at its start five years ago and now a leader in its alumni group, presented the new Bay de Noc College flag for first flying. (It shows the Bays de Noc area in outline at the top of Lake Michigan, in navy and white.)

"I studied at Bay de Noc for two years and like my friends I think that if it was not for this college we wouldn't have gone on with our education," said Mrs. Druding. "Now the alumni will promote the college and work to provide scholarships and loans."

Heirman M.C.

The American flag was presented to Dr. Rinehart, the State flag to Joan Rinehart, president of the Student Government and the college banner to Miss Dolores Samson of the faculty. An honor guard from K. I. Sawyer Air Force Base flew them all at once on the newly erected staffs as the assemblage stood with hand on beled completely successful in maiden test flights from the space complex at Cape Kennedy.

When they become operational, the missiles will replace the Polaris and Minuteman 1 and 2 as the backbone of America's retaliatory force. Both are expected to be placed on operational status in about two years.

Details of the test flights were not disclosed. Official spokesmen for the space agency and the two services announced only that the Minuteman successfully traveled its planned 5,000-mile journey to a splashdown near Ascension Island and the Poseidon came down at a predetermined point 1,000 miles at sea.

Poseidon, rated potentially eight times as effective as Polaris, is 34 feet long, 74 inches in diameter and weighs 65,000 pounds. Like the Polaris, it has a range of 2,500 miles but it reportedly is twice as accurate as the older missile.

The bigger, far-ranging Minuteman 3 is designed to take up to three warheads on a rocket that is 59 feet, 9 inches long and 6 feet wide. The missile weighs 76,000 pounds and is capable of traveling more than 6,000 miles.

Both have computerized and motorized devices capable of dispersing nuclear warheads over scattered targets selected prior to launch. Present Polaris and Minuteman payloads can only follow a ballistic trajectory once they are released.

Defense spokesmen say the missiles, with their multitarget and penetration capabilities, could give the United States an edge in deterrent strength over the Soviet Union.

However, some critics say the development of the new missiles could bring on a deadlier arms race with the Soviet Union.

Killed were Jessie H. Bush, 43, of Bossier City and Mrs. W. C. Montgomery Jr., 45, of Heflin. Bush died at a Shreveport hospital where he was taken for treatment of a fractured skull.

The four men listed as missing were identified as John W. Thomas, 32, of Dubberly; Emmett F. Brewer, 50, of Houghton; William P. Tewell, 47, of Bossier City; and Miller L. Jackson, 28, of Shreveport.

Humphrey Inches Away From LBJ's War Policy

VFW Meet To Hear Wallace

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP)—Former Alabama Gov. George Wallace's campaign headquarters in Montgomery said Friday Wallace has accepted an invitation to address the Veterans of Foreign Wars at their national convention in Detroit Aug. 22.

Earlier, it was announced that Wallace had canceled plans to attend the Michigan convention of his American Independent Party in Dearborn next week. James Hall, state vice chairman of the party, said it was necessary that the former governor be in Oregon in order to get on the ballot there.

VFW officials said Vice President Hubert Humphrey has accepted an invitation to address their convention. He said Republican presidential nominee Richard M. Nixon has been invited but has not yet accepted.

Battles Break War Lull

SAIGON (AP) — Fierce new battles flared up along the northern frontier, in the central highlands and east of Saigon, with heavy casualties reported on both sides, the allied command said today.

Allied troops repulsed four enemy attacks Thursday and Friday and U.S. Marines making a helicopter assault Friday against North Vietnamese positions ran into an enemy mortar barrage.

The actions left 157 enemy soldiers and 74 allied troops killed and 251 allied troops were wounded.

The sharp, scattered fighting stood out against what U.S. officials have interpreted as a long general lull in the war while the enemy refitted and rested its forces for an expected major offensive.

The heaviest action was around the training camp and artillery headquarters of the South Vietnamese 18th Division at Xuan Loc, 40 miles east of Saigon.

Ambush Vietnamese

The Viet Cong sent sappers and riflemen against the installation behind a 300-round mortar barrage Thursday, then ambushed one of the division's battalions Friday five miles south-east of the town. Vietnamese sources reported 100 enemy soldiers killed in the two clashes. They said 52 government soldiers were killed and 112 wounded.

In the northern sector, 15 enemy sappers got into positions of a U.S. 1st Air Cavalry Division unit Friday as the enemy launched a strong mortar and ground attack against the American positions 15 miles northwest of Hue.

Four Marines Killed

Spokesmen said 18 Americans were killed and 55 wounded and 17 enemy bodies were found, including those of three sappers killed inside the defensive perimeter.

Daniel Newman Found Innocent

HOUGHTON (AP)—A jury of 10 men and two women Friday found Daniel Newman innocent of an open charge of murder in the 1967 death of his father, William.

Newman had told police his father died when he fell from a dock while fishing. Murder charges were filed against the son when a skeleton identified as the elder Newman's, was found in a Dollar Bay dump.

Historical Commission Asks Million

The Michigan Historical Commission, meeting Friday at the House of Ludington, developed planning for request to the State of Michigan for $1 million to buy the Michigan State Farm Bureau Building on N. Washington St., Lansing to serve as a headquarters for the state's historical services.

The Historical Commission now has its museum, archives, research office and other facilities scattered about Lansing. It hopes eventually — but distantly — to be provided with quarters in the state's new capital complex in Lansing, but seeks more efficient interim housing.

The Farm Bureau is erecting a new building and its present one is available, "and very strategic for our purposes," said Dr. Willis F. Dunbar, of Kalamazoo, president of the commission.

"It is close to the airport and the Lansing Community College wants our present museum building and we'd be able to have the Farm Bureau as an income paying tenant until its own building is ready for it if the state would buy it building for us."

The commission also discussed in its budget talk the desirability of funding for the historymobile which it dropped as an economy measure.

Meeting with the commission here briefly was member Clinton Dunathan, managing editor of the Escanaba Daily Press, who is convalescing after surgery.

Maddox Enters Democrat Race For President

By The Associated Press

Candidates cultivating delegates for the Democratic presidential nomination have been confronted by a fresh crop of speculation over President Johnson's role at the convention.

And there's also a new, fourth candidate: Georgia Gov. Lester Maddox.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, campaigning in New York City, said, "Robert Kennedy and I came to hold remarkably similar views on Vietnam."

Stop Bombs—If?

Humphrey said he supports full freedom for all political groups in South Vietnam and advocates an end to all bombing in the North "when restraint and reasonable response is obtained from North Vietnam."

Sen. George McGovern said in his home state of South Dakota that the government should pay farmers to produce more, not less, and dispose of the nation's surpluses.

He said the food should be used to fight starvation around the world.

Johnson has been remaining relatively secluded at his hill country ranch while the campaigners scurry about seeking support. But he has one potent force going for him: Uncertainty.

Elliott Roosevelt, Florida national committeeman and son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, contributed his share to the speculation Friday by declaring in Miami Beach he expects Johnson to be drafted by the party.

Johnson Draft

Roosevelt said a wave of draft-Johnson sentiment would be launched by a stop to the bombing in North Vietnam.

Roosevelt told newsmen: "I'm not privy to any inside information. But I've noted that the National Committee keeps advising us that the whole day of the 27th will be turned over to a eulogy of President Johnson and his administration . . . and they aren't scheduling any votes on the presidency until after the 27th."

The 27th is the President's 60th birthday.

Reason To Aid

In the campaign itself, meanwhile, Republican Richard M. Nixon received a promise of at least television appearances from former foe Gov. Ronald Reagan of California.

The Democrats splintered further with the entry of Maddox, who said he feels the party should be given a conservative choice.

Democratic Chairman John Bailey announced there would be no floor demonstrations following candidate nominations at the convention. Sen. Eugene McCarthy had said prior to the announcement that his followers were planning a "different" style of demonstration.

Republican vice presidential candidate Gov. Spiro T. Agnew of Maryland, who has been criticized by some Negro leaders, said he will meet with black leaders in California to explain his stand on civil rights.

Black Candidates

Democratic Mayor Richard G. Hatcher of Gary, Ind., a Negro, said: "I think the Democratic party ought to give serious consideration to a black candidate."

Third party candidate George Wallace promised Indians he would repeal open housing legislation if he's elected president.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy said the presence of rival delegations from Georgia would test whether the Humphrey forces "are sincere about having a truly representative convention."

McCarthy's people have challenged the delegation headed by Maddox on grounds of discrimination. The rival delegation, including State Rep. Julian Bond, is reported to be 3-1 for McCarthy.

Election To Settle 68-69 School Finances

Fate Of Program Goes To Voters

By DAVE ANDREWS

What do voters of the Escanaba Area school district want in their school program?

That question will be answered for the 1968-69 school year Monday at 10 voting booths in the City of Escanaba and in Wells, Ford River and Cornell townships as electors of the district decide the fate of a 5.4 mill proposal for operating the schools.

The proposal — the fifth asking operational millage in the past year by the Board of Education — is the last which will be considered before the tax levy for December's rolls must be certified.

There is no time for another election.

Monday is the day.

Difference Cited

A year ago — Aug. 30 to be exact — the Area Board of Education asked for 5.0 mills and was overwhelmingly defeated, a result which set the tone of school financing for the past 12 months in an election with consequences not unlike those facing the district Monday.

The major difference in a year, however, is that the present school board has vowed it will not operate the school system for another year with the deficit financing method of 67-68 which left a $90,000 debt when the fiscal year closed.

If the millage is not approved, there will be even greater cutbacks implemented than those of a year ago.

Defeat of the proposal Monday will mean elimination of the entire program of transporting students, elimination of five custodial jobs, elimination of three secretarial jobs.

It will mean that planned improvements to the Junior High library, blacktopping at elementary school playgrounds and improvements at other buildings will not be carried out.

It will mean that seven teachers needed to keep pace with growing enrollments will not be hired, placing a greater teaching load on the existing instructional staff.

In addition, the Board of Education has promised a 50 per cent increase in book rentals and other fees designed to raise about $30,000.

Change In Strategy

Spelling out the alternatives to passing the millage is a change in strategy by the Board of Education. In each of the four previous elections, the school board chose to remain silent on the consequences of a "No" vote to avoid the inevitable charge that the board was "threatening" the people.

Because Monday's election is the last one which could alter school revenues for the 1968-69 school year, the Board of Education decided it had no choice but to detail the alternatives to allow the voters to make a well-reasoned decision.

The Escanaba Area school district is not the only system in Michigan with financial problems. Menominee will vote Aug. 29 on operating millage and the Menominee school board, like Escanaba's, has pointed out that bus transportation will be eliminated if its proposal fails.

Area Not Alone

Voters in Kingsford earlier this month defeated a five mill proposal and only a citizen's campaign which secured pledges of over $25,000 saved the school system's program of extra-curricular activities, including football and basketball.

Throughout Michigan, according to a report by the Michigan Education Association, a total of 536 elections on operating millage have been held this year with 339 passing.

In August, seven of 13 proposals have been defeated. Precincts will be open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday.

Cake Takes Cake In Junior Show

Normally, the best part about a cake is that it goes well with a steaming cup of coffee.

In the Junior Show of the Upper Peninsula State Fair, however, there is one cake that even the best of the cake eaters would have second thoughts about spoiling with a knife.

Created by Judy Barton, 512 N. Mackinac, Manistique, the cake is entered in the decorating competition and came through easily with a blue ribbon award.

The cake features an intricate pattern of yellow icing as the hoop skirt for a toy doll,

which is placed in the center.

Miss Barton made the cake as a project for a cake decorating club organized by Mrs. Norm Patz, also of Manistique.

The "Cinderella" cake is one of the highlights of the Junior Show, which features project work by 4-H Club youngsters from throughout the Upper Peninsula.

Another unusual exhibit is the leather-work face on a clock by 16-year-old Rose Lackey of Newberry. The design features a squirrel in a tree.

The Junior Show is located in a tent near the livestock barns. Other exhibits include projects in woodwork, knitting, photography, entomology (bug collections), clothing, textile painting, conservation, electricity, etc.

Labor Parade In Detroit Canceled; Split Is Cause

DETROIT (AP) — The Wayne (Detroit) County Council of the AFL-CIO is foregoing a Labor Day parade for the second year in a row, although traditionally the Democratic nominee for president has begun his campaign in Detroit with a Labor Day speech.

Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, speaking as if certain he will win the Democratic nomination, said Thursday he will march in New York's Labor Day parade.

Detroit's Cadillac Square was the scene of Labor Day campaign kickoffs by Harry Truman, Adlai Stevenson, John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

A Humphrey aide was quoted as saying "The Detroit area is so affluent now that you can't get them away from the beaches and lakes to hear a Labor Day speech any more."

An AFL-CIO spokesman chuckled at the comment, but said: "The real reason is that since the UAW (United Auto Workers) split away from the AFL-CIO it would make it difficult to have a parade in which labor could present a united front."

Ghetto Children Guests Here

This past week has been a different one for 17 boys and girls between 7 and 13 years of age from the ghetto area of Milwaukee. They have been guests in homes in Escanaba and Rapid River through the Rural Summer Vacation Program of the Lutheran Human Relations Association of America.

Families of Immanuel and Christ the King Lutheran churches in Escanaba and Calvary Lutheran Church in Rapid River have served as "vacation homes" for these boys and girls. One aim of the program is to help the young people see small town and rural life and experience things which some of them would never have an opportunity to do otherwise.

This program was started in the Wausau-Merrill area of Wisconsin two years ago with approximately 50 young people coming as guests. In 1967 several more churches entered the program and over 170 boys and girls participated. This year nearly 1000 young people have been guests in 20 communities in Wisconsin and Upper Michigan.

"RSVP is designed to involve concerned Christians whose burning question, 'What can I do?' usually remains unanswered," said Rev. Roger L. Patrow of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

"For all kinds of people who have little or no regular contact with each other, this is one important way to share the love of Christ. There is nothing complex or sophisticated about the program; it is simply people meeting people. It is giving warm affection and patient understanding."

"It is receiving the gift of the presence of another human being, a unique individual. It is the enriching of each other's lives, sharing new experiences, with the hope that a better America will result from such contact and friendship."

Delta Democrats Are Divided On HHH, McCarthy

Delta County Democrats in convention at the Delta County Building Friday night chose 11 delegates to the Michigan state convention of the party at Grand Rapids on Aug. 30-31 and alternates.

There was no straw polling of the small group at the meeting on their preferences in the Chicago national convention of the party starting Aug. 26 but a county leader of the party said "nearly five per cent of Delta delegates are for the two major candidates" Vice President Humphrey and Senator McCarthy, and I'd say that Mr. Humphrey has a very considerable bulge over McCarthy."

Gov. George McGovern of South Dakota is rated "virtually unknown" and Gov. Maddox of Georgia, who has also entered the Democratic presidential nomination contest at Chicago, is in the same category.

At their spring convention the Delta Democrats found 40 per cent of their numbers for Humphrey and the rest divided between Senator Robert Kennedy, in second place, and Senator McCarthy, in third.

George St. Louis, Delta County Democratic chairman who served as temporary chairman of the convention, said that there was sentiment among the delegates for abolition of the unit rule in conventions. The

Vulcan Girl Regains Title

Carol Magnuson of Vulcan regained top showmanship honors in the dairy cattle division of the Junior Livestock Show of the Upper Peninsula State Fair.

Miss Magnuson, who also won top showmanship honors in 1966, was defeated last year in a bid for a repeat victory by Carol Supa of Norway.

This year, however, she made it and picked up the holstein showmanship honors along the way.

Runnerup in the senior division of the "all breeds" showmanship competition was Irma Woodard of Cornell, who also won the Brown Swiss title. Lawrence Benson, owner of the Jersey competition, finished third.

In the junior division, Charles Benson of Powers took home top showman honors. Don Wender of Iron Mountain was second, followed by Bob Carlson of Carney.

Murray Awarded Heroism Medal

PERRONVILLE — Spec. 5 Tim Murray was awarded the Bronze Star Medal for heroism in military operations against a hostile force while serving in "The Big Red 1" in Vietnam.

On Feb. 1, 1968, while serving as a medic on a reconnaissance mission near Phu Cuong, his patrol was ambushed, his citation said.

Several casualties were incurred in the initial exchange of fire and Murray, disregarding the blanketing fire, rushed forward to treat two wounded individuals. As he finished, an armored vehicle was hit by hostile fire and incurred three serious casualties. He immediately ran to the stricken vehicle, climbed atop it, and remaining exposed to he insurgent fire, began to administer first aid to the wounded.

Specialist Murray's quick and timely actions and professional skill were instrumental in saving the lives of several American soldiers, the citation said.

The medal was officially presented just prior to Tim's return to the United States last month. He was also presented with a Purple Heart and the Army Commendation Medal for service.

Tim is currently home on leave until August 30 when he

Marching Band In Soo Parade

The Escanaba Area High School marching band left Escanaba about 6 a.m. today for Sault Ste. Marie where it was scheduled to join 130 other units in the giant Tricentennial Parade over a four-mile route this afternoon.

Director John Chown said the band will return to Escanaba late today after bandsmen take a boat tour of the Soo Locks and attend a teenage dance.

The band has been rehearsing at the high school for the past two weeks and will feature a street drill to versions of "Over The Waves" and another march in its parade routine.

A total of 110 students made the trip, giving Escanaba the largest marching unit in the parade. Three buses were chartered for the trip with funds raised by bandsmen recently in a "radio-thon" program over WLST.

Chown expressed appreciation to Escanaba area businessmen and residents who contributed to the fund-raising drive.

Jefferson Davis was included in the general amnesty of 1868, which released all the Confederate leaders from prison.

New School Project Includes Gym

Big Bay de Noc To Bond For Million

Big Bay de Noc School District has been authorized by the State Department of Education to hold an election on Monday, Sept. 30 on a proposal to bond the district for $1.2 million to construct a new building to house the district's elementary and high school classes.

Carl Van Remortel of Fayette, president of the Big Bay de Noc School District Board of Education, said that the bond issue would be retired in 30 years. The proposed school would be on a 40 acre site to be purchased for $9,900 at Garden Corners just north of the New Garden Cemetery. The site would be bought with school district funds and not bonding money. The district may use 5 per cent of state aid for a site.

Four Townships

The district includes Fairbanks, Garden and Nahma townships in Delta County and Inwood (Cooks) Township in Schoolcraft County. The district was created by consolidation two years ago and has been operating in its township schools. Frank Stupak of Gladstone is superintendent of the district.

The bonding project would consolidate the housing of the new district for the first time with an enrollment next year from kindergarten through the 12th grade estimated at 625 students.

The building plans include a gymnasium with seating for 1,200 persons.

The new school would replace present schools in Garden, Nahma and Cooks. Building plans are being prepared by the architectural firm of Mayotte & Webb of Lansing.

Voter Registry

The board is studying the most economical means of heating the proposed building and has not reached a decision. It would necessitate a line three-quarters of a mile long to take natural gas to the site from Garden Corners where the Great Lakes gas line will pass.

The bond issue, said Van Remortel, would pay for the construction of the building and furnishing it. The board of education authorized the election in a meeting at the Cooks School on Aug. 14.

Last day for registration of electors for the Sept. 30 election on the bonding will be Friday, Aug. 30. Township clerks will be at their offices between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 24 for registrations.

No Charges In Inkster Death

DETROIT (AP) — Wayne County Prosecutor William Cahalan announced Friday no charges would be filed in the fatal shooting by police of a 14-year-old Negro boy in Inkster last week.

Cahalan said there was no evidence of criminality in the shooting of either the boy—James Matthews—or in the wounding of an unidentified Inkster man.

Matthews was killed the night of Aug. 7, about half an hour after State Police Detective Robert Gonser was killed by rifle fire from a passing car during a night of racial disturbances in the Detroit suburb.

The ruling of no criminality was made after completion of an investigation by a special 30-man team, the prosecutor said. The investigation included the questioning of a number of police officers known to be involved in the incident.

Cahalan said Matthews was killed by one or more of 17 policemen lined up in a field to flush out a suspect in the slaying of Gonser. He said one Inkster policeman admitted firing twice at Matthews and that the youth was also hit by two other shotgun blasts. An autopsy report showed Matthews was hit while in a "running position" and that the shots were fired from a "considerable distance" behind him, Cahalan added.

Slaying Sparks Cincinnati Riot

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — Police have charged two white men with the killing of a Negro woman whose death touched off racial violence punctuated by sniper fire and property damage in several sections of the city Friday night and early today.

At least four persons were injured, two critically. Police made ten arrests.

Hardest hit was the predominantly Negro Avondale section. Police said they were fired upon by snipers in Avondale—in northern Cincinnati—and in the West and East ends. No injuries were reported from the rifle and pistol bursts.

First-degree murder charges were filed today against William Harrison, 22, and Elvin Billman, 31, both of Cincinnati.

An 18-year-old Middletown, Ohio, girl, riding unknowingly through the riot area in Avondale with three friends received a serious eye injury when the car in which she was riding was halted by several Negroes.

One of the friends said a Negro struck her with his fist. Two other girls in the car were slightly injured.

A Negro youth was shot and wounded critically as he hurled bottles at police.

Romney Urges Bond Issue OK

Gov. George Romney, appealing for the nation to return to moral and religious strengths as an answer to the country's social ills, Friday urged Upper Peninsula voters to support two bond issues totaling $435 million as a solution to Michigan's water pollution and recreational problems.

Both issues will be on the November ballot. Romney flew into Escanaba Friday morning for Governor's Day of the Upper Peninsula State Fair and for ground breaking ceremonies of Bay de Noc Community College.

He spoke at the noon Governor's Luncheon at the Terrace and also joined in various presentations recognizing Upper Peninsula residents and products.

"The biggest single natural resource we have left in Michigan is water," Romney said. "The trouble is that when we have a lot of something we tend to misuse it and we are polluting our water."

Restraint Lost

There are many things that need to be done—politically, economically and socially, Romney said, but the biggest thing the nation needs is a return to individual responsibility to himself and to God.

Romney said people have lost their "inner restraint" and have turned to "raw power and violence."

He said that laws to control crime and to expand opportunity are only the beginning and not the answer to this problem.

Awards To Farmer

Members of the Michigan Historical Commission, who met Friday in Escanaba, State Supreme Court Justice Michael O'Hara of Menominee and Congressman Philip Ruppe of Houghton were introduced as special guests.

North Central Traffic Gains

MINNEAPOLIS — North Central Airline's passenger traffic reached a new all-time monthly record in July when 286,245 passengers were carried on the airline's 7,500-mile system, according to David E. Moran, vice president-traffic and sales.

The boardings represented a growth of 34 per cent, compared with July of last year and exceeded the previous monthly high set this June.

Passenger miles flown totaled 50,738,298, up 41 per cent over July 1967. Total cargo ton miles — which include air freight, express, and mail — increased even more for a 64 per cent gain, with mail ton miles registering a jump of 121 per cent.

For the first seven months of 1968, North Central enplaned 1,685,322 passengers, 30 per cent ahead of the same period in 1967. Passenger miles flown increased 36 per cent to 284,640,110, and the record 3,715,832 cargo ton miles showed a 34 per cent gain.

5,400 Chicago Cabbies Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—More than 5,400 cab drivers struck Chicago's two largest taxi companies today leaving the city with only 20 per cent of its taxi fleet in operation.

The strike, affecting all but 900 of the city's taxicabs, came just nine days before the opening of the Democratic National Convention Aug. 26.

Negotiations between representatives of the drivers and Yellow and Checker Cab companies with federal mediators broke down Friday evening with both sides trading charges. No new talks were scheduled.

A spokesman for the cab companies said, "The situation is hopeless. The union just kept raising its prices."

Union leaders retaliated with a charge of being locked out by management. The leaders said, "When the cab companies began taking the new cabs off the streets two days ago, it became a lockout."

Chicago cab strikes have historically been marked with violence.

Garden Flowers Top Exhibits At Fair Show

By JANET MARTIN

Flower exhibits were in abundance again this year in the Floriculture Department of the U.P. State Fair and according to Mrs. Robert Jensen of Gladstone, superintendent of the department, there were more entries than usual this year and the biggest competition in the garden cut flowers was in the marigolds and daisies, both large and small flowering.

First place winners in this category were Jack Pearce of Escanaba and Mrs. Wilbur Cowell of Gladstone. In the Zinnia class, Mrs. Fred Fisher won first place in both the large and small flowerings.

Garden Lily

There were many unlisted and unusual flowers and potted plants entered this year and a lovely yellow Garden Lily won a blue ribbon for Mrs. Don McMillan of Escanaba.

Beautiful Fushias and Collus won awards for Herman Johnson of Bark River and Mrs. Harold Winchester of Escanaba.

Special awards were presented to Patti Quinn of Gladstone, Mrs. Arthur Giroux of Escanaba and Mrs. Wilbur Cowell of Gladstone for best Dahlia exhibits.

Again this year, Henry Caron of Escanaba won a first premium for his beautifully arranged garden flower basket, wild flower basket and wild flower table arrangement.

First place winner in garden flower vase arrangements was Roberta Breclaw of Escanaba, a young miss, who made the arrangement herself.

Special Occasion

John Pearce of Escanaba won a first premium for his table arrangement of garden flowers and for his special occasion arrangement entitled, "On to Victory". It featured red, white and blue flowers.

There were many exhibits of wild flowers entered in all classes and winning a blue ribbon for 25 of one variety of wild flowers was young Laura Hupy of Escanaba. The four Hupy children each entered an arrangement in the 25 of one variety of wild flowers category.

More Children

Mrs. Jensen said there were more children entering exhibits in all categories this year. Judging of the flowers took place on Tuesday and was expertly done by Walter Wickert of Escanaba.

Assisting Mrs. Jensen in this department were Bill Olson of Bay View and Mrs. William Johnson of Groos.

Mrs. McCarthy Speculates On White House Life

NEW YORK (AP) — Abigail Quigley McCarthy says she hesitates to even think about what it would mean to her if her husband were elected president and she were propelled into the White House.

The wife of Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has more important things on her mind.

Like the starving civilians of Biafra—"American women refuse to believe avenues are closed," she says.

Or the papal edict on birth control—"My husband's position is a matter of 20-year record. He has said that in a pluralistic society no public official . . . would find it right to advocate personal morality as general public morality."

Or her writing—"Sorely neglected" since her husband began his campaign for the Democratic presidential nomination. The wife of the Minnesota senator held a news conference—her first in three months—Friday to announce a meeting to be held in New York Monday under the sponsorship of the Women's Coalition for McCarthy.

The meeting will bring together women civic leaders to discuss problems such as Vietnam, poverty and hunger.

"It's a matter of focusing on those issues," Mrs. McCarthy said, "so that women . . . can bring them to the attention of delegates and the Platform Committee."

Mrs. McCarthy, 52, the mother of four children, said "so many things that seemed impossible, unlikely have happened, that I would hesitate to think what would happen" if she became first lady. Besides, she said, the country gets its first ladies "by accident—because they happened to marry a man who became president."

ATTENTION HOME-OWNERS AND PARENTS

To stop busing our children to school could be a plan to persuade us to not oppose this request for 5.4 mills which adds up to hundreds of thousands.

We do not believe the property-owners would oppose a reasonable request of 2.0 mills which would give them about $110,000.00 each year.

To bus our children cost the Board about $71,000.00.

WHY then should they decide to stop bus transportation? Why? You know the answer and so do we. Spend, Spend, Spend.

Carnival Rides Keep Thrill

The U.P. State Fair midway has been whirling and twirling all week with the new offerings of the W. G. Wade Shows. They come every year and the young try rush out to see what's whoosing that's new.

And a few old codgers look and wonder if there's a pattern in the change.

No better way to find out than to ask the man who owns it.

His name is W. Glenn Wade and he lives in Mason, Mich., and he's third generation in the carnival business and he's frank.

"After all," he says when asked about new rides "how many are there to twist a person?"

And that's the essence of carnival rides; whirling people about. They do a good job of of course and put them in his father's show. (A merry-go-round after World War II could be bought for $10,000, but one is $23,000 today. They were selling some ride tickets then for 9 cents to beat the amusement tax that began at 10 cents. Rides averaged 15 to 20 cents a ticket then and today they average 35 cents.

The Wade Shows have 5 employees the year around and they play 5½ to 6 months a year and have 100 employees in season, besides employing about 65 casual laborers to set up the show and dissemble it.

Who rides 'em? Young folks, of course, mostly under 25 years of age, although there are some adventurous oldsters who try out their toupe wax on the rides.

Bounce Is Tops

Top income maker in the Wade Shows is the "Holiday Bounce." Originally it was the "Bubble Bounce" manufactured by the Custer Mfg. Co. of Springfield, Ohio and this machine's first owner was Eastwood Park in Detroit. Sold by Eastwood, it was dismantled and went to a national amusement park in Cuba where it died in the unsettled condition of that troubled country.

Dwayne Steck, who has rides at Benton Harbor with Wade, bought it and rebuilt it. "It's one of the finest rides in the country today," says Wade, who should know. "Steck is a Minnesota farm boy whose father had a little carnival in Minnesota. He's a self-taught engineer, a genius of ride construction.

Lights Help Sell 'Em

"Gaudy lights sell a ride as much as the mechanism. American built rides were weak for years, but it's mass production now and safe and cheap. Lowell Staff, Steck's partner, is a European ride and show importer. The Allen Herschell Co. of Buffalo, N.Y. is the greatest builder of merry-go-rounds and other rides in America.

"The carnival season gets shorter," said Wade. "In Michigan it's over in October. The Allegan and Saginaw fairs and Centerville and Hillsdale fairs are the only ones held after Labor Day now. We used to run through October, but now we're through in mid-September after an April start. Fairs used to be held after the harvest, now they're held while the weather is good.

"Rides are much more simplified than they used to be. Many are built into a truck chassis with hydraulic controls so they can be set up with a minimum of help. They're constantly being redesigned.

"Young people, today like rides as much as earlier generations. There's no space age obsolescence that we can see. In an age of speed these rides are speedy."

HOLDERNESS, N.H. (AP) — A Pennsylvania couple pulled two Girl Scouts to safety after the youngsters became stranded on the face of Rattlesnake Mountain, state conservation officers reported.

The officers said George Corson of Windsor, Pa., lowered his wife down to grab the wrists of Connie Manville of Center Harbor and her companion, Mitzi Ruel, then lifted the youngsters to safety.

After a hitch in the Navy Glenn Wade started in the carnival ride business in 1948 with purchase of a ferris wheel. He bought a merry-go-round, too, TIM KEMPER and Prof. Earl Prah look over their charts on the dig they are conducting near Seul Choix. Kemper is an undergraduate at the University of Toledo and field assistant to Prof. Prah.

Seul Choix Area Diggings Seek Relics Of 500 B.C.

Prof. Earl Prah of the University of Toledo is supervising an archeological dig near the Seul Choix Lighthouse this summer and attempting to verify the culture and habits of Middle Woodland Man who lived sometime in the thousand year period between 500 B.C. and 500 A.D.

Prof. Prah is being assisted this summer by his wife, Lynn, and two field assistants, Tim Kemper and Ken Horn, both of the University of Toledo. The project is financed through a cooperative grant of the Toledo University and the University of Michigan. U of M will do the lab analysis of the items discovered.

Several pottery fragments and flint have been uncovered as well as fish vertebrae and would indicate that the civilization that inhabited this area was primarily one of a hunting and fishing society. The Professor said that seeds of corn, squash, and beans would indicate an agricultural habitation but none have thus far been found.

Dig In Two Pits
The dig is being conducted in two pits 10 x 10 feet each and is carefully gauged by levels of soil composition. The dig is carefully charted and each "feature" unusual trace or disturbance in the soil is noted and measured.

After the pit is measured and the features charted Prof. Prah's assistants begin a meticulous sifting of the floor of the pit. A small area is scraped with a shovel, the dirt sifted through a fine screen, and the residue checked for tell-tale artifacts.

The recently organized Junior Historical Society — Manistique High School Chapter — has been most faithful in assisting the Prof. and his assistants the past few weeks.

An anthropological expedition is most important since it seeks to study man, past and present, with most attention given to peoples who have no written histories. The dig near Seul Choix seeks to discover the social anthropology of those who lived near here between 500 B.C. and 500 A.D.

Correlate Findings
This expedition may become significant only if certain sociological and technological points collaborate with other findings. (Social anthropology deals with man as a herd animal, with relationship, marriage, inheritance, intertribal relations, war, trade, and religion. Technology regards man as a worker, tool user, and cultivator; studies his handicrafts, from his most primitive implement to a graduated innovation.)

To watch Prof. Prah stand in a dig and digress on relationships, using his centimeter ruler as a pointer, is reminiscent of a course-field trip-and the moment when one suddenly realizes the significance of the many hours of classroom lecture. He is a graduate of Wayne State University and completed two M.A.'s at Michigan — one in French and the other in Anthropology. He is currently completing his doctoral thesis at the University of Michigan and teaching at the University of Toledo.

Bundle Burials
The group spent six days at Squaw Island near Sandusky Bay on Lake Erie at the beginning of the summer and discovered an extended burial ground; in Rosford, Ohio—near Toledo — they discovered what might prove to be the largest stockade found in the Great Lakes area; 1,500 feet in length. The diggings in Rosford are thought to cover the Late Woodland Period — 900-1000 A.D.

Bundle burials were also discovered in Rosford with over 20 skulls. "Bundle burials" refer to the practice of binding bones together and placing a skull at the top of the bundle. Some societies would leave their deceased on the ground until the flesh rotted and then bury the bones; others would cremate their dead and bury the ashes; some would mount their

Ray's Attorney Asks Judge To Quash Indictment

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — An attorney for James Earl Ray, charged with the sniper slaying of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., asked a criminal court judge Friday to quash the murder indictment against his client.

Judge W. Preston Battle set Sept. 6 for hearing the motion along with another one asking that Ray's attorneys be given court permission to see and question prospective prosecution witnesses.

The motions were filed by Arthur J. Hanes Jr.

Arthur J. Hanes Sr., the former Birmingham, Ala., mayor who is Ray's chief counsel, said he was denied permission to interview Charles Quitman Stephens, a man viewed as a key witness in the case.

Stephens said he saw a man run from the washroom of a rooming house from which police say the shot that killed King was fired.

Wants Ship Hulk Removed:

Kelley Suit Cites Peril For Beach

LANSING (AP) — Atty. Gen. Frank Kelley filed suit in Leelanau County Circuit Court Friday demanding that the owners of a freighter wrecked in northern Lake Michigan waters remove the vessel and the fuel oil it contains.

He further asked that the vessel be declared a nuisance.

His main concern, Kelley said, is that some 6,500 gallons of fuel oil aboard the vessel could be released into the lake if the ship breaks up.

The ship now is in danger of rapid deterioration and break-up, Kelley said.

"This could cause irreparable damage to the waters of Lake Michigan and to beaches in the area of Sleeping Bear Dunes State Park," said Kelley.

Fish also could be killed by the fuel oil and such fuel oil discharges have caused extensive deaths among waterfowl.

The area is Coho salmon fishing territory. The nearby sleeping Bear Dunes State Park has one of the cleanest and most unspoiled stretches of land along the Lake Michigan shore.

The vessel is the Francisco Marazon, which ran aground and was wrecked during a storm in November, 1960, within swimming distance of South Manitou Island in northern Lake Michigan.

Kelley asked the court to issue an order for the owners to remove the fuel oil and the vessel within a reasonable time.

If this is not done, he asked that the state be permitted to take such action and charge the owners the necessary costs.

At the time of the shipwreck, the vessel was of Liberian registry and was owned by Moa Naviera, S. A., of Panama City, Panama. It was chartered for operation purposes to the time and Freight Chartering Corp. of New York.

Subsequently, Kelley said, ownership of the vessel was acquired by the Francisco Marazon Corp. The corporation was formed under Michigan law with controlling interest owned by Illinois residents.

Schooling Coho Reach Arcadia

LANSING (AP) — A large school of Coho salmon, stretching four miles long, has been located in Lake Michigan in an area from two miles west of Arcadia toward Frankfort.

The concentration of salmon was located by conservation department fisheries workers using sophisticated fish-finding gear aboard the survey boat, the Steelhead.

The school of Coho is the largest yet sighted in their survey efforts this summer.

The Arcadia-Frankfort area marks the northernmost point that the salmon have been discovered in their migration from lower Lake Michigan toward parent streams where they will be making their spawning runs this fall.

Nets set by the department fisheries men in the area were swept ashore by wind and waves. But they still turned up 11 Coho averaging about nine pounds. The largest weighed 13 pounds, eight ounces.

Two Chinook salmon also were found in the net, the largest a near-eight pound maturing female.

Netting of the Chinook confirmed department predictions that a few of the fish would migrate this fall toward the Little Manistee River, where the department planted them in the spring of last year.

Other survey findings indicate that a few Chinook salmon also will be running up the Muskegon River this fall. About 200,000 Chinook were planted there last spring.

Good Coho fishing is expected this weekend between Pentwater and Manistee in Lake Michigan—if the weather conditions allow anglers to get out to the lake.

Best action is predicted from between two to six miles offshore.

UAW Will Pick Man On Sept. 14

DETROIT (AP) — The United Auto Workers Union will hold a special rank-and-file convention in Detroit Sept. 14 to make a choice between the candidates for president of the United States.

Voting will be by secret ballot.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther promised the special convention in April to prevent a prenomination endorsement of any of the aspirants by his 1.6-million-member organization.

The union leadership then was split primarily between Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey and the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y. A poll of executive board members at that time disclosed none favoring Republican candidates.

Reuther declined to name a choice.

Lions Take Tour Of Eaton Plant

Joe Williams, representing the Mechanical Power Division of Eaton, Yale and Towne, was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Gladstone Lions Club on Thursday evening. He also hosted the Club for a tour of firm's manufacturing facilities here.

Williams stated that Eaton Yale & Towne has 90 plants in the United States and abroad with a total of 40,000 employees. The company is very diversified. Their many products could be classified into the following categories: (1) Trucks and component parts account for 29 per cent of their total sales. This includes transmissions, axles, etc. (2) Yale locks comprise 8 per cent of total sales. (3) Construction equipment account for 25 per cent. (4) Automobile products 20 per cent of total sales and (5) Control systems, dehumidifiers, etc., 18 per cent.

Williams said that Eaton, Yale & Towne paid 12 million dollars in dividends the first quarter of this year. The company will spend 1.4 million dollars this year on research and development. At the present time Eaton Yale & Towne are in the top 100 companies in the world in gross sales. A new product that Eaton is working on is the Auto-Perceptor. A car equipped with this device after contact with another car will immediately have a large inflatable balloon develop to protect the passengers.

At the conclusion of Williams talk, the Lions were given a conducted tour of the plant. They visited the electric motor division where 5 to 100 horsepower motors can be made. The new part of the plant was also visited where "No Lubrication Required Pulleys" for many products are produced.

The tour guides were Joe Williams, Reg Curtis and Everett Kalishek.

Grand Rapids To Adopt Emergency Power Ordinance

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — Officials of Grand Rapids, touched by civil disorders earlier this year, plan to adopt an ordinance granting local officials emergency powers to cope with future disorders. State Atty. Gen. Frank Kelly ruled that home rule cities may adopt emergency powers when they face a threat of civil disorders or the inability to contain or control a civil disorder.

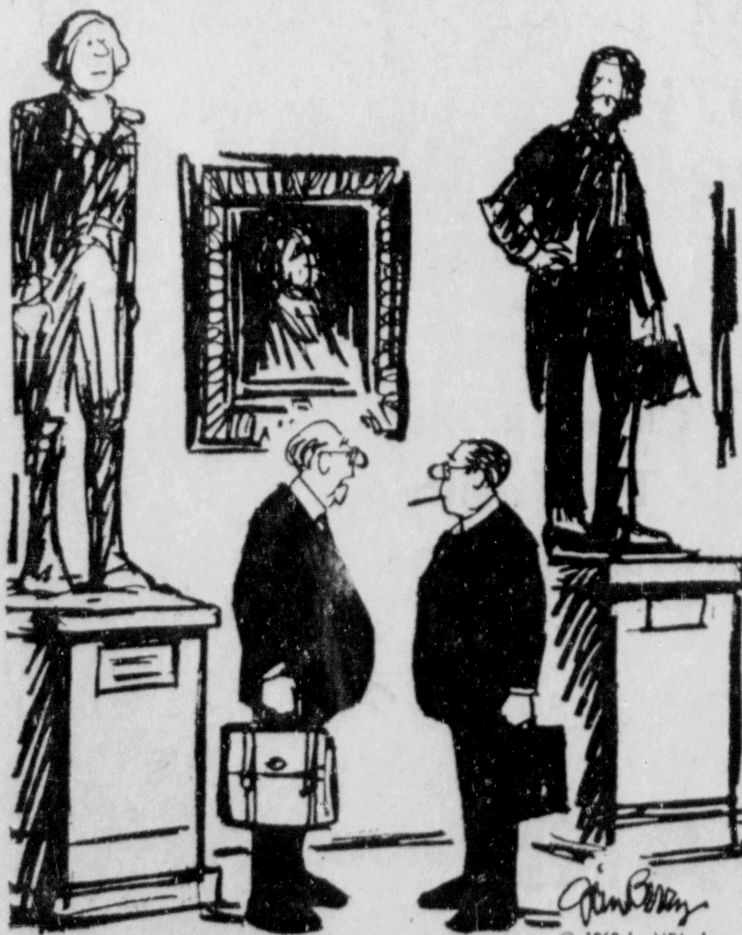

Grand Rapids City Attorney Steven Dykema said the proposed ordinance would authorize the mayor to set a curfew and restrict or prohibit the sale, transportation and use of intoxicants and explosives or flammables in the city.

Pappas Finally Records Victory Over Cardinals

By The Associated Press
Milt Pappas, whose hobby is bowling, finally knocked the pins out from under the St. Louis Cardinals, but it took relief by Claude Raymond to spare him from ninth-inning grief.

Pappas, now in his third National League season had an 0-5 record against the Cardinals before finally turning the tables on them Friday night in Atlanta's 5-1 victory.

The big right-hander held the Cards to two hits going into the ninth when he ran into trouble. Then with two on and two out, Raymond came on to get John Edwards and nail down Pappas' ninth victory against nine losses.

San Francisco topped Philadelphia 7-5, Pittsburgh trounced Los Angeles 8-4, Cincinnati clubbed the Chicago Cubs 11-7 and Houston outlasted the New York Mets 3-1 in 12 innings in other National League action.

Pappas, who pitched nine years in the American League with Baltimore, got all the offensive help he needed when Joe Torre slammed a three-run homer in the fifth.

St. Louis got its run in the fourth when Curt Flood reached base on an error, stole second and scored on Orlando Cepeda's single.

San Francisco came up with three runs in the ninth for its victory over Philadelphia. The first run scored on a single, an error and a foreout. The other two came home on Ron Hunt's double. Cookie Rojas' fourth hit of the game drove in two runs in the sixth and gave the Phillies a 5-4 lead.

A three-run fifth inning gave Los Angeles a 7-3 lead over Pittsburgh and set up Don Drysdale's 14th victory. A walk, four singles—one by Drysdale—and an error produced the three runs.

Drysdale, who has lost 10, was relieved by Jim Brewer in the eighth, and Brewer gave way to John Billingham in the ninth with a run in, two on and none out. Billingham put down the threat.

The two-run homer turned out to be Cincinnati's big weapon against Chicago. Pitcher Jim Maloney, Mack Jones, Fred Whitfield and Leo Cardenas each hit a two-run shot. The Cubs got two-run homers from Randy Hundley and Ernie Banks.

Bob Aspromonte's two-out, two-run double in the 12th gave Houston its victory in a game twice delayed by rain, the second time, between the top and bottom of the 11th, for 1 hour, 3 minutes.

Houston had tied the score with Jim Wynn's two-out homer in the ninth. J. C. Martin's first homer of the season in the seventh inning gave the Mets a 1-0 lead.

Southall Passes Baltimore To 4th Quarter Victory

WASHINGTON (AP) Terry Southall won the game for the Baltimore Colts but he hasn't won a job.

The taxi squad quarterback from Baylor hit three straight passes for 66 yards in a last-minute push to set up Lou Michaels' field goal for a 15-13 victory over the Washington Redskins in a National Football League preseason test Friday night.

Southall won praise from all-pro Johnny Unitas for the clutch drive that resembled the familiar heroics of the Colt master passer, but Coach Don Shula said the question of a backup quarterback to Unitas this season is still up in the air.

Southall, cut from the squad a year ago, got the opportunity to play the second half in relief of Unitas because of an injury that has sidelined Bob Ward, last year's Colt reserve passer, until mid-September.

With a minute and a half left and the Colts trailing by one point, Southall took over on his own 19-yard line and hit successive passes of 13 and 20 yards to Jimmy Orr and Don Alley, then arched a 33-yard throw to Orr to move Baltimore in range for Michaels' kick.

Orr made the catch over his shoulder, with his back to Southall, leaning so far backwards he almost fell.

Southall said, "It appeared Orr didn't have his guy beat. I was trying to keep the ball outside so he could get to it. The guy was real close to him and it was 50-50. But Jimmy just pulled a great move and came back and got the ball."

The Colts, without a timeout left, lined up for the field goal and Michaels booted it from the 23-yard line with 25 seconds left.

Charlie Gogolak booted two Washington field goals before Baltimore could run a play, hitting the second after a Colt fumble on the kickoff. But the Colts rallied for a 9-6 halftime lead on a safety and a short touchdown drive by Jim Welch after Unitas rifled a 41-yard pass to the Redskins' two-yard line.

Michaels kicked the first of his two field goals from the 20 in the third period before his game-winning shot.

The victory was the 17th straight for the Colts over the rival Redskins in regular and preseason games dating back to 1959.

Heisman Trophy winner Gary Beban of UCLA played a little more than two minutes in his pro debut for the Redskins, missing two passes and getting tossed for a loss once.

The game touched off a lively weekend for National and American League teams. Eleven others are scheduled, including Monday night's nationally televised tilt between Chicago and Green Bay, both of the NFL, in Milwaukee.

Saturday night's schedule pits Dallas, NFL against Los Angeles, NFL on the West Coast; St. Louis, NFL at Kansas City, AFL; Minnesota, NFL at Denver, AFL; Philadelphia, NFL at Miami, AFL; Pittsburgh, NFL at San Diego, AFL; Boston, AFL vs. New York, AFL at Richmond, Va.; Buffalo, AFL at Cincinnati, AFL, and Atlanta, NFL vs. New York, NFL, at Nashville, Tenn.

Sunday, Cleveland, NFL is at San Francisco, NFL and New Orleans, NFL at Houston, AFL.

In another development Friday, Bob Talamini, an all-league guard, was traded by Houston to the New York Jets for a high draft choice. Talamini, an eight-year veteran, was holding out for a better contract and had not reported to the Oilers' camp. Weeb Ewbank, coach and general manager of the Jets, said Talamini had agreed to terms with his club.

McLain Wins 25th As Tigers Top Bosox

By The Associated Press

As last year's Cy Young Award winner and the latest victim of Denny McLain, Jim Lonborg knows what it's like when everything goes right—and wrong.

"He's in a fantastic groove," said Lonborg after he and Boston lost to McLain and Detroit 4-0 Friday night. "Once you get in a groove like that, everything seems to go right."

The Detroit right-hander showed what Lonborg meant in the sixth inning when Lonborg beat out a hit, Mike Andrews singled and the runners reached second and third with none out on a wild pickoff attempt. McLain, leading only 2-0 at the time, cooley struck out Dalton Jones, Carl Yastrzemski and Ken Harrelson to get out of the jam, and the game was his.

Last year, Lonborg was performing such feats en route to a 22-9 record that sent the Red Sox to the pennant.

Now it's McLain's year. The victory was his seventh straight and 25th of the season, and widened Detroit's first-place lead to eight games over Baltimore, which dropped before Minnesota 5-2.

In other games, Lou Johnson's bases loaded hit in the 12th lifted Cleveland by the Chicago White Sox 4-3, Roy White's run-scoring double in the sixth inning sent the New York Yankees past Oakland 2-1 and Washington scored four unearned runs for a 4-2 victory over California.

McLain, who has lost only three times and is an incredible 16-0 on the road, is fast closing in on the coveted 30-victory season last accomplished in the major leagues by Dizzy Dean in 1934. Dean did not win his 25th game that year until Sept. 10.

Hurling his 22nd complete game and sixth shutout, this year's Cy Young Award shoo-in yielded seven hits, struck out nine and walked one.

Lonborg also pitched well, but this is 1968, not 1967. He gave only two hits in seven innings, but they were Dick McAuliffe's double and Al Kaline's seventh homer in the third inning.

Lonborg, set back first by a skiing accident during the off-season and then by injuries, thus fell to 3-4. His relievers allowed the other two runs in the eighth when McAuliffe tripled and scored on a wild pitch and Norm Cash singled in a run.

Jim Kaat ruined Baltimore as he doubled in three runs in the second inning and then pitched out of repeated trouble, striking out 12 and scattering nine hits to even his record at 9-9.

Minnesota's Tony Oliva also took over the league batting lead with three hits for a .307 average while teammate Rod Carew went hitless and fell to .302.

Johnson's infield hit for Cleveland came with one out after the White Sox tied the score in the ninth on Pete Ward's two-out, two-run homer, his 12th. Tom Tresh gave New York a 1-1 tie with his 10th homer in the third inning and White won it after Jake Gibbs singled and Mickey Mantle walked against Jim Nash, 10-8.

Lindy McDaniel worked out of jams in the seventh and eighth inning to save Al Downing's first victory.

An error by Winston Llenas in the fourth inning opened the way for two Washington runs, one on a wild pitch and the other on Bernie Allen's hit, and errors by Jim Fregosi and Tom Satiriano led to Del Unser's sacrifice fly and Ken McMullen's run-scoring hit in the fifth.

Joe Coleman, 9-13, with relief in the eighth, got the victory.

Bob Murphy Holds Lead In Westchester Classic

HARRISON, N.Y. (AP) — Bob Murphy, a rookie on the tour and yet to win a pro tournament, held a two-stroke lead going into today's third round of the $250,000 Westchester Golf Classic—but he wasn't happy.

"I'm a little disappointed," he said Friday after posting a three-under-par 69 for 133. His round included a double bogey six on his 17th hole and that's the one that had him bothered.

"I had a good round going, and then I take a double bogey," he said. "It shouldn't happen."

As it was, his 11-under-par total had him two strokes ahead of a menacing field of five locked at 135—PGA champ Julius Boros, 65; Dale Douglass who says a new-found putting secret helped him to a 65; defending champion Jack Nicklaus, 68; long-hitting Dan Sikes, 68; and Reeves McBee, who had two eagles en route to a 66.

Behind them at 136 are Orville Moody, 67; Australian Bruce Crampton, 68; Don Bies, 66; veteran Art Wall, 70; and former PGA champ Bobby Nichols, 68.

The tight little Westchester Country Club course, 6,648 yards long with a par 72, took such a terrible beating from the elite field seeking the $50,000 first prize, that it took a score of 144—even par—to make the cut for the last two rounds today and Sunday. Seventy-nine made it.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE with Major Hoople

OUT OUR WAY

by J. R. Williams

Hundreds Cheer College's Growth At Campus Site

heart and sang "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the Escanaba City Band directed by Paul Cowan.

Joseph Heirman, chairman of the college board of trustees and one of the chief authors of the college (he is Michigan State University's Extension director in Delta County and was invaluable in creating urban-rural support) introduced a distinguished group of guests headed by Gov. George Romney, just returned from the Republican National Convention in Miami Beach and world scrutiny as a prospect for the presidency.

College Growth

His leadership showed him at his best at the ceremony. Just back from defeat of great dreams of personal accomplishment, he was solicitous about educational efforts in Michigan. The statistics on community colleges, he said, are staggering. In 10 years Michigan community college enrollments have increased nearly four times, from 15,400 students in 1958 to 57,000 this year, with 64,000 predicted for fall. There were 18 community colleges when Romney became governor 5 years ago, today there are 29.

"We live in an age of learning," said Romney in citing the enormous increase in state aid to education and of federal aid. "The most important part of college," he said "is the quality of education itself. Parental interest is most needed today. Education is more than mere knowledge."

Guests Introduced

Cheering Delta County on was James Dotsch, who said he looked forward to the extension of the community college district from Delta into Schoolcraft and Menominee counties.

The guests introduced included: Escanaba Mayor Cecil Chase, Gladstone Mayor Delbert Nelson, Dr. William Atkinson, president, Jackson Community College and Michigan Council of Community College Administrators; Dr. Ralph Jalkanen, president, Suomi College, Hancock; Dr. James Olsen, dean, Marinette Center, University of Wisconsin;

Dr. James Perry, president, Gogebic Community College; Dr. Kenneth Shoultice, chancellor, Lake Superior State College; William Cudlip, Detroit, regent, University of Michigan; John Moffat, Manistique, representing Michigan Technological University through distinguished alumni designation; Henry Harnischfeger, Milwaukee, president, Harnischfeger Corp.; Carl Anderson, president, Delta County Trades & Labor Council; George Douglas, manager, Escanaba Paper Co. division of Mead Corp.; Dr. Fred Sabin, Marquette, John L. Farley, Menominee, Glenn Moreau, Escanaba, all members of the board of control of Northern Michigan University;

City Govts. Represented

Mayor Cecil Chase, Councilmen Harold Vanlerberghe, Edward Cox, H. George Nelson and Robert Bink of Escanaba; Escanaba City Manager George Harvey, Gladstone Mayor Delbert Nelson, Gladstone City Commissioners Frank Stupak and George Young and Gladstone City Manager H. J. Henrikson;

Dr. Roger Seidl, Menominee, chairman, Marquette Catholic Diocese Board of Education; U.P. State Fair Queen Nancy Weldum of Rock and Bay College trustees Clayton Ford, Cornell; Robert Groos, Groos; Arol Beck, Charles Follo and Ray LaPorte, Escanaba, and Dr. George Kelly, D.D., Gladstone, and retired charter board member Hagle Quarnstrom.

The blessings were invoked by the Rev. Reuben Carlson, First Lutheran Church, Gladstone and Rev. Norbert Freiburger, St. Anthony's Catholic Church, Wells.

Jamrich's Speech

Northern Michigan University president John X. Jamrich lauded area residents Friday for their "faith in meeting the evident needs" of their children by supporting the "rapid development" of Bay de Noc Community College.

Speaking at the ground breaking and campus dedication ceremony of Bay de Noc's new $300,000 Technical-Science Laboratory Building, NMU's new chief executive told his audience they have "brought the opportunity for high school graduates to pursue their education close to home, thus minimizing the financial obstacles which have hampered further education for many."

"All education, and higher education in particular, should become the utmost concern to the residents of this community," he said.

Dr. Jamrich said the community college occupies a unique place by virtue of its commitment to providing non-degree programs — in addition to transfer programs — in a variety of areas; preparation for business, social service and other technical and paraprofessional areas of work which he said are so important to our complex technology.

It's Not Cheap

Pointing out that the variety of programs expected of community colleges brings financial resource needs similar to those experienced by four-year institutions, Jamrich said "it should never be assumed that post-high-school education in the community college is . . . less expensive than it is in the four-year schools."

"In fact, any effort to dilute freshman and sophomore educational programs by seeking inexpensive approaches through community colleges will be a disservice to our youth."

Discussing the relationship between NMU, Bay de Noc and other community colleges, Jamrich stated it was his intention to relate to the two-year schools programmatically "so that we shall be able to serve your children most effectively at Northern."

He also pledged it was Northern's "sincere intention not to compete with or replicate programs properly being fulfilled by the community college."

"I am a firm believer in the delineation of roles and functions for the several types of colleges and universities in the State as a matter of importance from the point of quality and fiscal resource use," he said.

Local History

In his remarks, Jamrich also traced the early history of the area which historians described as the "East shore of Big Bay de Noc, which is rapidly developing into a thriving farming community."

He pointed out that an abundance of fish attracted pioneers, too, and in 1881 a Mr. Booth came from Chicago and erected a freezing house in Escanaba, the largest fish freezing house in the United States, and perhaps the forerunner of today's frozen food products.

"The excitement of ore, iron and cooper touched the pioneers, too, and another group, including Joseph Peacock, Richard Mason and the Jackson Iron Company, came into this area and broke ground for the blast furnaces to produce iron for shipment to the south."

Jamrich said that according to historians, churches have been a vital part of life here since 1668 when Father Marquette blessed the ground in this area. In 1865, Father DuRoche planned ground-breaking ceremonies that led to the establishment of St. Joseph's Church and from that, St. Anne's and St. Patrick's. The Presbyterians broke ground in 1868, the Methodists in 1873 and the Episcopalians in 1877.

Survival First

"When the first white settlers decided to live in this area, survival took precedence over all other things. But once that was established, education for the young assumed great importance and has been the number one object since that time."

He recalled that Mrs. Emily Dunbar taught the first school in Escanaba in 1866 in the back room of a business structure and that in 1867 voters approved purchase of a site and the ground breaking for the erection of a building for school purposes at a cost not to exceed $2,000.

Jamrich cited such persons as James Morgan, E. P. Lott, Miss F. M. Goodhall, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Woodward, A. P. Northrup and D. R. Hall as having "market the progress in education through the years."

"Within such a consistent and expanding background of educational development it followed, then, that all education and higher education in particular, should become the utmost concern to the residents of this community . . ."

"What we are doing (today) is reaffirming our faith in the worth of education; we are adding to the total opportunity for higher education in Michigan for the immediate present and for many years to come."

"From the one-room schoolhouse of yesterday, to the Technical-Science Building to stand on this ground, we plan a tomorrow which will provide assurance and maximum opportunity for every child to take part in and enjoy the better way of life to which total education provides an expressway."

Fair Show Has Quality Poultry

What is without question the finest collection of domestic fowl ever gathered together in northern Michigan—the poultry exhibit at the Upper Peninsula State Fair—is attracting the attention of hundreds of visitors daily.

With over 400 birds entered, about the same number as last year, just about all of the major species are represented. In addition to the chickens there are over 150 waterfowl, 65 bantams, some guinea fowl and turkeys. There are also a swarm of rabbits.

August Mattson, Negaunee, superintendent of the department, has two boasts about this year's show. It is clean, the birds are immaculate, healthy and free of lice and other vermin. Then, his proudest boast is the quality of the exhibits. He points out that it is a mature show with the birds at their peak in physical development, with the hens just about to enter their laying period, no runs or scrawny young stock.

Mattson says that the quality is largely due to a new rule at the Fair that requires all birds entered to be at least 4½ months old.

Especially outstanding is the showing of geese entered by David Reath of Vulcan. He is showing Emden, Toulouse, Old American Buff, Sebastapol Canada (raised under permit) and Africans. And Mattson is quick to whip out the breeders standard guide to show how closely they match the pictures of the breed standards.

Mattson attributes a reawakening of interest in the fowl to the fact that so many young families are now living in the country where they can have pets, and poultry naturally fits in. The exhibitors are all fanciers and backyard type raisers who take pride in their birds, much beyond the meat and eggs angle. The big growers (commercial) are not represented, they are much too busy for that, it seems.

John H. Matthews, Negaunee, is assistant superintendent in the department and Matthias Manderfield, Houghton, was the judge.

Sylvania Pine Is Record Tree

A new record size national champion red pine tree has been located within the Sylvania Recreation Area, according to an announcement by Watersmeet District Ranger Marsh E. Leffer.

The new record red pine has a girth of 117 inches (9 feet, 9 inches in circumference), is 112 feet in height and has a crown spread of 65 feet. It is located on the northeast corner of Loon Lake within Sylvania.

Paul W. Thompson, chairman of the Michigan Big Tree Committee of the Michigan Botanical Club, confirmed the measurements of this new record and has placed a 4 by 6-inch aluminum sign on it to provide recognition as a new national champion. The national champion status was given by the American Forestry Association which is responsible for the Social Register of Big Trees within the United States.

Other Michigan national champions of local area species are: Basswood with a 203-inch girth, paper birch with a 132-inch girth, balsam fir with an 84-inch girth and Norway spruce with a 130-inch girth.

State champion trees are those having the largest girth at a point 4½ feet above the ground. The national championship is awarded to the tree of each species rating the high points based on the sum of the girth in inches, height in feet, and one-fourth of the crown spread in feet.

This is the first state or national champion tree located in Gogebic County. It now joins 40 other Michigan counties having champions. State champions are listed for 117 species of which 55 are now national champions. Michigan has more national champions than any other state in the country and this wealth of giant trees illustrates the valuable heritage represented in its timber resource.

Mass To Mark Field Opening

Holy Name High School will dedicate its new athletic field in a program starting at 7:30 p.m. Sunday which will be highlighted by a Field Mass to be celebrated by the Rev. Lawrence T. Gauthier, former superintendent of Holy Name, who is now superintendent of schools for the Catholic Diocese of Marquette.

Father Gauthier will be assisted by Fathers Wayne Marcotte and Isidore Walters, OFM.

The first lighting of the field will take place at a point in the Mass of Dedication and will symbolize the Biblical account of the creation of light, and reminiscent of Christ as the Light of the World.

Band music for the program will be played by the Holy Name High School Band directed by Patrick Henderson. Clinton Groos, captain, will head the 4th Degree Knights of Columbus, and Knights from Menominee, Iron Mountain and Manistique will also participate, with Menominee sending its Knights of Columbus Color Guard.

The program will offer the Rev. Charles J. Carmody, superintendent of Holy Name; Phil Currier, president of the Booster Club, and Mayor Cecil Chase.

More people get more news from newspapers than all other sources combined.

At a caucus Monday night, the delegates gave 60 votes to Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, 3 to Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy and 1 to Young.

The remaining 51 votes are uncommitted.

An aide to Young said the meeting was to express preferences and the delegation was still technically bound to Young as a favorite son until released today.

It's Such a Big World

Some folks say that as we grow older the world grows smaller. Is that because of the wonders of modern communication and transportation? Or is it because when some folks grow older they become preoccupied with their own little orbit of life?

Junior certainly enters life completely preoccupied with himself. But once he begins to walk and talk—gosh how his world balloons!

That's why he needs the religious training our churches provide. His faith must keep pace with his burgeoning world.

And as grown-ups, in worship and Christian devotion, we need likewise the spiritual gifts our churches offer.

For it really is a big world. Full of challenges, opportunities, and promising tomorrows. It always looks that way to a growing soul.
